Welcome to the new Hull Independent Cinema programme for April to June 2017.

Our weekly screenings bring you the very best of new independent film from around the world, and there’s plenty more to whet your appetite.

We’ve a new partnership with Leeds International Film Festival, bringing you a selection of the best films without UK distribution, for a truly exclusive experience; our Short Film City night returns monthly; and once again this year we’re a host for Yorkshire Silent Film Festival with our live score screening of Ben-Hur.

We’ll be working with Pride in Hull to run regular screenings in the run-up to UK Pride 2017 in July, and hosting a live satellite broadcast from Sheffield Doc/Fest in June – check our website for full details of these events.

All this and the usual fantastic offerings from our partners WeWatchFilms and Cult Cinema Sunday. It’s going to be our best season yet, so why not join us to Discover Something Different?

Ben Hur

Mon 8 May, 7.30pm
Middleton Hall, University of Hull,
Cottingham Rd, Hull HU6 7RX

The 1925 silent film version with live score

Directed by Fred Niblo | USA | 1925 | 143 min

Betrayed by his boyhood friend, Massala, Ben Hur is imprisoned as a galley slave on a Roman ship and left to die. Saved by a sympathetic general, he sets out to find his lost family. And one day, many years later, Ben Hur and Massala meet once more for a final, violent reckoning as competing Roman charioteers in the Circus Maximus...

The most epic silent film of them all, Ben Hur is a gripping tale of love and revenge. At its premiere in 1925 nothing like it had ever been seen before. The dazzling special effects, thrilling action, glorious technicolour sequences and a cast of thousands helped Ben Hur make MGM’s reputation as the blockbuster studio. The famous chariot race is jaw-dropping even today - captured by forty two cameras, with hundreds of horses and thousands of extras, the sequence was recreated almost shot-by-shot for the 1959 remake with Charlton Heston.

Accompanied live by Jonathan Best (piano) and Trevor Bartlett (percussion)

Hull Independent Cinema is a local charity, run by a small team of volunteers, bringing great film to new audiences as we work towards our long-term goal of a new venue for independent, world and art cinema in Hull.

2017 is a really important and exciting year for HIC as we’re the main delivery partner for the British Film Institute’s funding for the UK City of Culture film programme.

The BFI is funding ‘Transformative Film Culture For Hull’ as part of its National Lottery-funded BFI Film Audience Network and led by its lead partner BFI Film Hub North.

Delivered through Hull 2017 and by Hull Independent Cinema and a unique partnership of film festival, educational and archive partners from across the north, the film programme will bring a packed programme of more than 400 screenings, one-off events and film festivals throughout the year to Hull and the region.

The programme reflects the BFI’s activities across the UK to bring film to audiences where there is less opportunity for them to experience and engage in film, and to support local film networks and audience initiatives. There will be much to explore, celebrate and enjoy.

By coming to one of our films you’re not just getting a great night of entertainment, you’re also supporting our long-term plans to create a new independent cinema in Hull. We’re always keen to hear what you think – if you have any ideas or questions please let us know. Thank you for your continued support.
